Alpha Tau Omega

Tau Alpha Omega The Tennessee Omega Chapter at The established University of the South in 1877 as the tirst fraternity at Sewanee. ATO binds men together in a brotherhood based upon eternal immutable principles, with a bond as strong as right itself. ATO teaches that true men the world over should stand together and contend for supremacy of good over evil, teach not politics, but morals, foster not partisanship, but the recognition of true merit wherever found, have no narrower limits within which to work together for the elevation of man than the outlines of the world: these were the thoughts and hopes in the minds of the founders of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Highlander Society

For the last ten thousand years, since the end of the Devensian glaciation, the Scots have been a distinguished and venerable race. From that time until the present day the Scots have been besting their neighbors in all but arrogance. The story of the Highlander Society begins here, For in the days when the University of the South was still in its youth, a group of boys formed a society known as the Wellingtons. In response to this, and in memory ot their lost brethren at Falkirk, a scholarly group of the highest caliber came together to establish the Highlander Society. The quality of their membership has not deteriorated nor has the society's threefold dedication to trogaus Sewanee athletics. foster fraternal bonding, and to imbibe all the revels of Sewance. Highlanders may be spotted on their way to a game, clad in traditional Scottish habiliments and processing behind their piper with a smattering of Wellingtons attempting vainly to keep pace.

Wellington Society

The Most Ancient and Secret Order of the Wellington Society, commonly referred to as The Iron Cape, began many, many years ago. predating its skirt wearing sister society by at least several centuries. The Wellington Society bases its secret rituals and faith upon the medieval feudal representation in cheerful. merry and foggy old England. In keeping with its distinguished Anglo forebears, it tries on the one hand to maintain an air of pompous dignity while exhibiting a touch of regal high spirit. Wellingtons cannot be matched in their enthusiasm and spirit while cheering on the great and noble Sewanee Tigers. Prime Minister and Duke of Kettering Roddey Dowd headed the exclusive organization which draws its members from a diverse body of gentlemen.

Roddey Dowd, Duke of Kettering, Prime Minister Jackson Tucker, Count of Wolverhampton Matthew Stringer, Baron of Birmingham Jerrod Brown, Viscount of Barnt Green Nelson Payne, Baron of Kidderminster Mac McCallum, Baron of Brewdley Greg Barleski, Baron of Thurmaston John Williamson, Baron of Kirby Muxloe Wilie Cram, Duke of Ruskington Brooke Voss, Count of Coningsby Chane Rennie, Earl of Paddington D.H. These past nine years have gone by so fast. It seems like only of you! Go and embrace your new adventure, but never forget how much your family loves you.

Love, Mom and Dad
